Dear Friends,

In these first few months of the year it can seem a bit dreary can't it? The nights are still long and the weather is very unpredictable. During these times it is good to have something to look forward to. In February we traditionally think of Valentine's Day but for those who have lost a beloved partner this can be a difficult season of adjustment and grief. For others it can be a time of year when you avoid the cards, as it seems to highlight the difficulty of being single. All of this got me thinking about love and how we show those we love what they mean to us. I'm not talking about partners in particular but anyone we love and care for. Apparently there are five 'love languages' and one of these is Words of Affirmation. These can be things said or written that affirm the other person. Within friendships this is a valuable way of letting someone know how important they are to us. We all know that when the post arrives, if you have a bunch of typed envelopes and one that is hand written, we open the hand written one first. It just seems more personal, especially if you recognise the handwriting as that of a loved one or friend. Personal notes are so important and up-lifting.

Often within friendships and relationships people have nicknames for each other. These are ways of showing affection. However, sometimes people create nicknames that are designed to hurt and diminish. I recently discovered that some people refer to me as 'The Vicar of Dibley'. I must admit I laughed when I found out, but I know it isn't said with affection, it is meant to belittle.

As Christians we do have to turn away from those who would ridicule and laugh at us and show a better way. Jesus suffered from great unpleasantness, ridicule and eventually death on a cross, yet he forgave all because love conquers everything. We can make a choice not to let negative words stick in our minds and affect our hearts.

As we start the season of Lent in February perhaps we could reflect on the way in which we use Words of Affirmation towards others. We could also choose to ignore those who try to put us down and make us feel small. It can happen in different ways but saying a little prayer for the other person can help those words to float away and not sting us. We could then be determined in Lent, rather than give something up, to make a conscious effort to support, thank and encourage others. Jesus was all about doing the unexpected and showing love in many different ways. We can do that too in this month of February and beyond. May the start of Lent be a positive one for you.

God bless you all. Rachael (or if you like, the Vicar of Dibley!)

TITCHWELL MATTERS

Dear Friends, Now that Christmas is past, our readings Sunday by Sunday in church follow the life of Jesus, and I have recently been mulling over my favourite bible passage. It's Luke's account of Jesus at the age of twelve staying behind in Jerusalem after his family have set off to walk back home to Nazareth. When Mary and Joseph realise that he is missing, they go back, and after three days they find him in the Temple debating in the most amazing way with all the learned rabbis. Some of you may be familiar with it in Luke's Gospel, Chapter 2:

We read: When his parents saw him, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you." "Why were you searching for me?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he was saying to them.

Jewish boys take their place in synagogue worship at thirteen, and Jesus was preparing himself for this, but also recognising God's claim on his life in the most marvellous way.

Now debate about this passage often centres on the issue of whether the boy Jesus was being naughty or disobedient to his parents, but God's claims on us can often be in conflict with our own human desires. The hardest decisions are not those between right and wrong, but often between two options that both represent worthy claims on us. And here, Jesus was already subordinating other priorities to his sense of God's purpose in his life; something that we can all find so hard. But we read on to discover that he went back home with Mary and Joseph.

For all of our February church services, please see page 2.

Stillness on the Saxon Shore on Fridays at 4 pm in February

3rd A longer time of stillness for Candlemas. 10th Reflections on Hope. 17th Reflections on Charity. 24th To be announced. Possibly a quiet day away. Please contact me for details.

Megan & Steve Greef, Poppy Appeal Organisers

BRANCASTER PARISH COUNCIL There have been two meetings since the last Newsletter so quite a bit to report. We hope you have had a good Christmas and New Year.

The car park situation continues to evolve. Council agreed to sign the two licences for the car parks at Cockmartin and Cherry Field – it was stated clearly that the Cockmartin one will not be used for general parking but only trailers as previously agreed. Since then, we have heard that there is a problem, with the landowners not wanting to sign these licences – Council awaits the outcome. Further meetings relating to the parking restrictions that are proposed in the Parish have occurred and significant changes made in response to these, particularly in Brancaster Staithe. Council has agreed that NCC should now be asked to proceed with the formal consultation process.

Council has considered its budget for next year, and we are happy to be able to inform you that the precept will not be changing for individual households this year - it remains at £30 pa for a Band D property, around 50% less than that for similar parishes in the area.

We also agreed to give £1,000 to Brancaster Village Hall to help with their planned CCTV system, and write a “strongly-worded” letter to NCC to protest at the continued delays in completing the FP5 Boardwalk. A new website and address will be coming soon – this will be compliant with new legislation and hopefully will be more user-friendly.

We continue to get a very large number of planning applications – around 25 in the last three months – and remind residents that these are available online at the Borough Council website, where you can register to be informed of ones near you. Council tries to listen to the views of local residents, but we are a consultee, not the ones who actually decide.

Council has agreed that the Clerk should do a presentation to those interested in standing for election in May 2023 (all Parish and Borough seats are being contested). This is to encourage interest from residents who may not know what being a Cllr involves, and explain how things work and how to apply. The meeting will be in Brancaster Village Hall on Tuesday 28th February at 6.30 pm. There will be refreshments – please advise the Clerk if you wish to attend to help us plan this meeting.

At the time of writing, we are in a cold snap, as might expected at this time of year; please try and keep warm and, if you are finding current circumstances challenging, we urge you to take advantage of all the help that is available. Information is found on our website and those of Borough and County Councils.

Application for Beach Car Park passes will be open from 13th February. Information will be on the PC website from that point – please only use forms after that date, as there may be slight changes. Forms will also be available in selected local shops. The old permits will be valid until the new ones are sent out.

The February meeting will be on Tuesday 7th, at 6.30 pm, Brancaster Village Hall. Prior to this, at 5.30, there will be an informal session for those interested in being involved in plans for the Coronation events. Please come along as individuals and representatives of groups, and we can hopefully have a weekend of events to match those we had last year for the Jubilee.

NEWS FROM BRANCASTER ACADEMY

Happy New Year from Brancaster Academy. We hope you had a good Christmas.

Thrift Class write: We loved all our Christmas activities in school like our party and Christmas lunch and Father Christmas coming. We went to a Puppet Show at the Village Hall too. Thank you to them for arranging it. We all had a lovely Christmas and some of us went to the Christingle, as we had learnt about this in school. This term we are learning about Our Wonderful World. We have already had 2 whole days on maps which was fun and we got really good at them. We have started learning about farming and are also getting ready for the Big Birdwatch. We are learning to identify birds and are going to make bird food.

In Samphire's geography lessons, we are looking at Europe, in particular comparing and contrasting our area with Paris and then going south to the Mediterranean. In our science lessons, we are looking at "materials" and how we can change solids, liquids and gases, as well as mixing and separating materials. We continue to have music lessons with a specialist teacher from Norfolk Music Hub; and Mrs Parkinson comes in on Wednesdays and teaches us some great art.

We break for half term on Friday 10th February and restart on Monday 20th February. Term finishes for Easter on Friday 31st March.

Our Headteacher

Many of you will have heard the sad news that Mr King will be leaving us at Easter. During his time with us, he has moved us from a somewhat precarious position following a time of instability, to our current strong position. We will be very sorry to see him go but are benefiting from being part of DNEA and their support in recruiting. They have a wide pool of potential in-house candidates to draw from, as well as the ability to advertise widely to reach the maximum number of people, and they seem to be confident they can find exactly the right person to lead us on the next part of our journey. We are looking forward to this with excitement – we have big plans!

NATIONAL COASTWATCH INSTITUTION (NCI)

Accredited Watchkeepers

We are pleased to have assessed and passed three trainee watchkeepers in recent weeks. Congratulations to Katt, Anthony and Henk who become our latest Accredited Watchkeepers. Our numbers continue to grow with 26 volunteers now registered. It is a delight to welcome 6 new members who have recently joined: Richard T, William, Sue, Claire, Mary and Mark.

NCI Brancaster stats for 2022 (8 months of operation)

Number of hours station manned – over 2,000. Number of incidents reported to HMCG – 13. Number of vessels logged – over 250 commercial, over 2,000 leisure.

Some examples of incidents reported during 2022 include: motor cruiser losing power and drifting, capsized dinghy, kite surfer in difficulty, chemical container washed up onto the beach, persons trapped on Scolt Head Island.

Fundraising Our thanks to the Brancaster Community Choir who raised over £112 from their carol singing around Brancaster Village. Two of our volunteers (Sarah and Anthony) are members of the group. We really enjoyed having a table at the Brancaster Winter Fare – this also raised over £145. Being situated next to the ‘cake table’ was something of a blessing and a source of overwhelming temptation though! We are a registered charity (Number 1159975).

How you can help! New station Our priority in 2023 is to raise sufficient funds for a new station. The existing station is rapidly coming to the end of its life – we are plagued by leaks when it rains, condensation makes everything damp, black mould and rust on the fittings. In addition, the station floor is in need of repair or replacement. We are currently putting together a plan to see how we can raise the funds needed, but if anyone has any ideas or suggestions (or funds to donate!), please contact Richard Burrows (Deputy Station Manager) by email – richard.burrows@nci.org.uk

Finally... We are very grateful to our brilliant volunteers for all that they do and to The Royal West Norfolk Golf Club for their continued support.

BRANCASTER HOMEWATCH There are some great initiatives out there to help people who suspect that they are being tricked. Stop Scams UK launched their free 159 telephone number last year – a number that connects you directly to your bank if you get a call that seems a bit suspect. Scammers often target older, more vulnerable and young people disproportionately, so share this information and help everyone fight the fraudsters.

As always, if you spot something unusual, call the police on 101, providing as many details as possible, such as descriptions of people and cars, including number plates. But if you believe a crime is in progress, then always dial 999. If you do not wish to leave your details, you can call anonymously, or via Crime Stoppers 0800 555 111 - your call is free and confidential.
