Dear Friends,

November is a month for remembering. The 1st is All Saints Day when we remember those people who have been like saints to us. Each generation has people who inspire others. Perhaps with their determination in times of personal difficulty - I think of Dame Deborah James or Tony Hudgell. Or perhaps those who speak out against injustice even when it puts their own lives at risk. Perhaps we think of people in our own families or communities who have gone that one step further to show love, justice and peace to others. The 2nd November is All Souls day when we remember loved ones who have died. In our churches on 5th November we celebrate All Saints. Of course 5th November is also the day when Guy Fawkes' failed gunpowder plot is remembered.

For many Remembrance Sunday - this year on the 12th - is the main day for remembering in November. The day when we give thanks for all those who have given their lives so we may live in peace. Particularly the first and second world wars, but also the many conflicts that have happened since then and the many that are continuing today. The chorus of the song "Where have all the flowers gone" comes to my mind. And yes I know this dates me as it was written 60 years ago in 1962 by Peter Seeger. The chorus is "When will they ever learn, when will they ever learn". It's a song written at the time of heightened awareness of the threat of nuclear war during the 1950s and 60s. It also speaks of the sadness and frustration that one generation to the next continues to repeat the fruitlessness of war. The word "they" has been changed to we or you by different singers. And the question still remains - when will they, we, me or you ever learn. When we will stop asking our young men and women to leave their families and homes and go to war. Perhaps this is more poignant for those of us with close family and friends serving in the military today. Perhaps with the awful pictures on our television screens and in newspapers it brings home to us how easily our lives can be shattered. How do we, can we, answer the question "when will they, we ever learn". Perhaps if we look at the life and example of Jesus we can see a way to "learn" - Jesus challenged by his teaching and actions the traditional standards and roles within society whenever these prevented the love, justice, peace of God from being experienced by all people.

There is a service for Remembrance Sunday at each of our churches. Join us to give thanks for those who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

May the peace and love of Christ be with each one of us.

Sandra Ellison, retired priest assisting during the interregnum.

A FEW HOUSEKEEPING REGULATIONS DURING THE INTERREGNUM

Whilst we are without a rector our Rural Dean, Peter Cook, takes over that responsibility. Please contact Peter in the first instance for all enquiries with regard to weddings, funerals and baptisms. Peter's phone number is 01485 517157.

The Diocesan Registrar is responsible for all memorials in a churchyard - headstones and plaques. During a vacancy all requests for these must go through the Registrar. The person/stone mason making the request should contact the Registrar directly: see website www.norwichdiocesanregistry.co.uk. Church wardens and priests assisting during the interregnum cannot give permission for these.

ST HENRY WALPOLE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH, BURNHAM MARKET

Mass times: Sundays 9.30 am, Fridays 9.30 am. Holy Days of Obligation: see notice board in Church porch. Further information: catholicparishofwalsingham.org.

ST MARY'S, BURNHAM DEEPPDALE

Remembrance Sunday

On the 12th November, Deepdale Church will mark the day with an Act of Remembrance at the start of our 9 am Holy Communion service. This will be outside at the War Memorial so bring an umbrella if the weather is not kind. Please join us.

Plants and Books

Thank you so much to everyone who has helped to make these two fundraising activities so successful again this year. Money raised from them goes to the upkeep of the building. The final figure received from Plants this year is £1068.36. Books continue to sell and from the end of October we will move them to the table in the tower where they will continue to be on sale at least until just before Christmas. If this is successful, we may leave them there in the new year. More books to add to the collection will be gratefully received. Do come and have a browse.

There will be a Churchyard Work-Party on Saturday 4th November from 9.30 am until 12 noon. If you can spare an hour or two during this time, please do come along and lend a hand. We could do with some fit younger people. Tea/coffee and biscuits will be supplied.

NEWS FROM ST MARY'S TITCHWELL

Dear Friends,

It seems to me that it was only yesterday that I last wrote to you about the Season of Remembrance, but that was a year ago. Since then, our world has become even more turbulent. The war in Ukraine continues, conflict has broken out in Sudan and as I write the Holy Land is erupting into killing and destruction yet again. People said after World War I "Never Again" and yet praying and working for peace and reconciliation among the nations is more urgent than ever before.

The scriptures urge us to pray for the peace of Jerusalem, and in our time for the peaceful co-existence of the three faiths for which this is the Holy City:

*Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May those who love you be secure.
May there be peace within your walls and security within your citadels."*

*For the sake of my family and friends,
I will say, "Peace be within you."
For the sake of the house of the Lord our God,
I will seek your prosperity. Psalm 122:6-9.*

Services for November at St Mary's, Titchwell:

With my prayers and best wishes for you all,

BRANCASTER PARISH COUNCIL

Our Big Community Chat produced a range of issues which we will be considering in coming months, including youth facilities (possible club, and Brancaster Staithe play area), and improved information (including access to external sources such as housing provision). This followed breakout groups discussing housing/development, facilities/amenities, roads/parking. Those attending were given information on which authorities deal with which issues – this is often not easy to establish. This and other data will be added to our website in the near future.

We again considered a large number of planning applications, with mixed responses, some based on our Neighbourhood Plan. You will be aware that there has been discussion locally about restricting second/holiday homes. When our Plan was first developed, and then revised, there was little pressure for such provisions. Should this change, a further revision would be required; this would need a lengthy period of research and planning by a group of the public and Councillors, before another referendum. Council has made no plans to proceed along these lines.

As the weather is turning colder please be aware that there are many schemes to help householders – renters and owners - with insulation, sometimes free of charge. More information on the ECO scheme can be found at https://www.west-norfolk.gov.uk/info/20001/housing/680/energy\_efficiency\_assistance\_schemes.

The next meeting of Council will be on Tuesday 7th November in Brancaster Staithe Village Hall at 6.30 pm. Contact details for the Parish Council: www.brancaster-pc.gov.uk; email clerk@brancaster-pc.gov.uk.

NOTES FROM THE EDITOR Kindly note that the next issue will cover both December and January. As usual, please get all contributions to me by the 19th of the month.

Brancaster Staithe deliveries Help would be appreciated to deliver the Parish News to any section of the Main Road west of the Harbour. It's quite a stretch for one person.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL It's been a very busy half term in Samphire Class. In September we had some new children join the school in addition to the new children who came to us from Thrift Class. They have all settled in very well. Unfortunately we've already had to say goodbye to three children as they have moved away from the area because of parents' jobs. In our History Learning we have been looking at the Romans and had a visit from some volunteers from the Norfolk Archaeological Trust. They came in for an afternoon and told us all about the foods the Romans brought to us when they invaded Britain over 2000 years ago. We also looked at the games children would have played and had a go at some ourselves. We were also introduced to Roman clothing and talked about how the more decorations there were on a toga (that's a big piece of material that Romans wrapped themselves in) the more important you were. We also had fun trying to wear one - it's trickier than it looks. We have another Roman Day coming up after half term when we will visit Norwich Castle.

Also we're very busy - along with Thrift Class - in preparing for our Harvest Festival at the church in October. Unfortunately Mr Johnson and some children were ill and off school on the day, but everyone worked together and collaborated to make it a success. Collaboration is one of our school values - and we showed heaps of this! Also courage which is our value for the half-term. Thank you also, to the PFA, led by Jess Letzer, who provided some yummy food after the service. Everyone said how good it was.

We are really lucky to have such a generous amount of support from the PFA. Not only did they organise the food, but they made a donation to the Norfolk Archaeological Trust when they visited, and they are paying for our day in Norwich at the end of October.

Half Term is the last week in October when the Schools Library Service should be reorganising and restocking our library. We can't wait to see what it looks like. If anyone wants to donate towards our new books, please contact the school by email (office@brancaster.norfolk.sch.uk) and, if you leave a phone number, someone will call you back. (This is just a temporary measure until our new secretary gets her paperwork through and can start.) Half Term: school returns on Monday 30th October. Our Nativity/Carol Service is Tuesday 12th December 2 pm in the church. All welcome. Term finishes on Wednesday 20th December.

NATIONAL COASTWATCH INSTITUTION (NCI) – BRANCASTER

Tremendous news: King's Lynn and West Norfolk Borough Council has approved the grant application and funding for the new Coastwatch Station in Brancaster. Preparatory groundwork will start in January and planning permission has been applied for, in the hope of completing the installation by March 2024. The Shanty Festival held locally during September was a great success and raised £1600, half of which was allocated to NCI Brancaster. Massive thanks to Simon at the Jolly Sailors and to all involved in a terrific event which resulted in such a generous donation. Huge thanks, too, to all our marvellous volunteers for donating their time and for preparing such great food for the event. The NCI Brancaster has signed up three new volunteers – Andrew O, John and Hilary – and now has twenty-six active members.

There have been three reportable incidents since the last report: two paddleboarders had difficulty with the tide (sorted safely), a chemical container washed up onshore with a potentially hazardous substance (removed to a safe place and reported to the National Trust) and a missing fishing vessel was reported in the area (located safely at Holkham beach).

Our thanks go to the Brancaster Staithe Sailing Club for their close cooperation and for the excellent training they give their members in boat and water safety: despite very high levels of activity, there have been no incidents reported by the Club. For more information about NCI Brancaster please contact Richard Burrows, Deputy Station Manager and Watchkeeper, on 07535 612777.
